

Anstruther, Fife

Population 3,446

Anstruther in Fife is the largest town in the East Neuk. It was traditionally a fishing village and still retains an active harbour with leisure craft. Today the town plays a role as a local service centre for the East Neuk. Tourism is important and there is also some light industry.

This type of medium-sized town is extremely mixed in terms of demographics. There is a particularly wide range of people, housing and activities. The number of older couples with no children are higher than average. There is a mix of professional and non-professional jobs, and part-time and self-employment are both important for a significant proportion of residents. Socioeconomic status is higher than in other kinds of town and there is a mix of professionals and nonprofessionals, those with higher and lower educational attainment.

Anstruther is an interdependent to independent town.

Its most similar towns are Dalbeattie, Thornliebank, Callander, and Inverkeithing.
