

Leslie, Fife

Population 2,998

Leslie in Fife was named after the local landowners the Leslie family. Spinning and bleaching were early industries. The Fettykil paper mill was a major industry in the 19th century and today papermaking continues (Fourstone Paper Mill co. Ltd). The town has community facilities and local services.

Social and council housing are the norm in this type of small town. Manufacturing and construction are the dominant forms of employment. Health and social work services are particularly active. There is a higher level of unemployment. Educational attainment is low. Car ownership is low, meaning that many residents in these towns are reliant on public transport.

Leslie is an interdependent town.
