

Lockerbie, Dumfries and Galloway

Population 4,287

Lockerbie is in Dumfries and Galloway. In the 18th century the area was a sheep farming area and Lockerbie was the local market town. It is still a local market town with agro-food industries including a creamery.

This type of medium-sized town is extremely mixed in terms of demographics. There is a particularly wide range of people, housing and activities. The number of older couples with no children are higher than average. There is a mix of professional and non-professional jobs, and part-time and self-employment are both important for a significant proportion of residents. Socioeconomic status is higher than in other kinds of town and there is a mix of professionals and nonprofessionals, those with higher and lower educational attainment.

Lockerbie is an independent town.
