

Rothes, Moray

Population 1,252

Rothes is in Moray. Rothes is located in a defensive position and had a castle in the 1200s which villagers would later burn down and use for stone for their houses. Further streets were laid out after 1745. The town is a whisky town with 4 distilleries. An associated biomass plant has been opened. An oil fabrication company is also based in Rothes and manufactures distillation equipment as well as supplies for the oil industry (Forsyths Ltd).

Social and council housing are the norm in this type of small town. Manufacturing and construction are the dominant forms of employment. Health and social work services are particularly active. There is a higher level of unemployment. Educational attainment is low. Car ownership is low, meaning that many residents in these towns are reliant on public transport.
